

The Constitution Act of 2017

Article one, subsection one

September 7, 2017

Mr. Kaarid and C/O:

We the People of the Art Room, in order to form a more perfect union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense of art, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the Art Room of Redeemer Christian High School.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself

Thou shalt keep thine hands to thine own work

Thou shalt respect the work of others and of thine own despite thine opinion of it therein

Thou shalt return all supplies to the correct place

Thou shalt keep the Art Room clean

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all people are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. We solemnly decree that the aforementioned laws are just and therefor true.

To follow every meeting wherein discourse or alteration shall proceed, this, the axiom of the Art Room, shall be recited:

My God in Heaven, thee gave birth to me,
My best, my dearest Room 203!
May He be guard, may He be shield,
Forever may He bless and wield
O graciously all deeds of thine,
Thou dearest class of mine,
And with my last breath my thanks to thee,
For true to death I'll ever be!

The peace of Christ be with us all.

Fine Art Pedagogue

Witness